Answer

MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

(SMT. SMRITI ZUBIN IRANI)

(a) to (d): No, Madam. There is no such proposal to set up a Central Training institute in each State of the country. However, the Government has launched a Central Sector Scheme of Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers & Teaching (PMMMNMTT) with all India coverage to address issues related to teachers, teaching, teacher preparation, professional development, curriculum design, designing and developing assessment & evaluation methodology, research in pedagogy and developing effective pedagogy. The Mission is addressing the current issues of supply of qualified teachers, attracting talent into teaching profession and raising the quality of teaching in schools and colleges and the long term goals of building a strong professional cadre of teachers and creating top class institutional facilities for innovative teaching and professional development of teachers.

Under the Mission, 30 Schools of Education in Central Universities, 50 Centres of Excellence for Curriculum and Pedagogy which include 5 Centres of Excellence in Science and Mathematics Education, 25 Teaching Learning Centres, 20 Faculty Development Centres, 2 Inter-University Centres for Teachers Education, one National Resource Centre for Education, 5 Centres of Academic Leadership and Education Management are being set up across the country.
